Fribourg, 12 October 2021

Change of CEO at Infracore SA

The Board of Directors of Infracore, a company specialized in healthcare infrastructure, is pleased to announce the appointment of Eric Frey as CEO effective since October 1, 2021. The Chief Development Officer of Swiss Medical Network succeeds Daniel Jandric, who has decided to leave the AEVIS VICTORIA and Infracore group after 7 years of service.

Eric Frey, a native of Zug, counts over 30 years of experience as an entrepreneur and executive manager. He has been a member of the General Management of Swiss Medical Network since 2006 in various capacities and as Chief Development Officer since 2008. After more than 15 years with Swiss Medical Network, Eric Frey has acquired a broad knowledge of the healthcare environment and has built up a solid network in the Swiss healthcare sector.

Infracore's Board of Directors is pleased that Eric Frey will take over the role of CEO. «He has a unique and extensive experience in both the healthcare infrastructure market and in hospital renovations and conversions, which will be of great value to our company, » says Martin Gafner, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Infracore. He thanks the outgoing CEO Daniel Jandric for his great commitment. Antoine Hubert, Board member of Infracore, expresses his gratitude to Daniel Jandric for his contribution to the management and development of the company. Daniel Jandric is leaving Infracore to take up a new challenge with a national real estate company.

Regarding future direction, Martin Gafner says, «Infracore intends to pursue its growth strategy in Switzerland, both in the private and in the public sectors. » With its know-how in hospital renovations and conversions, its financial strength and its broad network, Infracore is uniquely positioned in this market segment. It is estimated that over CHF 20 billion will have to be invested in the Swiss hospital landscape over the next few decades.
